

The Wharton Executive MBA (WEMBA) program will be hosting a panel discussion on the recent federal tax reform and how it might affect businesses, which will feature our Faculty Director, Kent Smetters, along with two leading tax experts.

Though the event is only open to WEMBA students, we will live stream the discussion on our page for the event for anyone interested in watching. A recording will also be made available on that page after the event.

Date: Today, 2/16/18

Time: 12:30pm - 1:50pm

Live Stream: <http://budgetmodel.wharton.upenn.edu/events-1/2018/2/16/federal-tax-reform-wemba-panel>

Panelists:

- Kent Smetters, Faculty Director of the Penn Wharton Budget Model. Boettner Professor in the Department of Business Economics and Public Policy at the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania. Research Fellow at the National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER). Former Deputy Assistant Secretary for Economic Policy at the U.S. Department of the Treasury.
- Cathy Koch, Americas Tax Policy Leader, EY. Former Chief Policy Advisor for Tax and Economics to the Former Senate Majority Leader, Harry Reid. Former Tax Chief for the Senate Finance Committee.
- Sahang-Hee Hahn, Assistant Vice President and Counsel at MassMutual Financial Group. Co-Founder and Co-Chair of the Tax Committee of the Asian American Bar Association of New York (AABANY). Vice President of Finance & Investments for the Don H. Liu Scholars Program.

Media (only): For the fastest response, email us at inquiries-pwbm@wharton.upenn.edu.

All other responses: Please use our Contact Us.

Sign up for PWBM Breaking News, Alerts and Newsletter. Unsubscribe anytime.

